FIRST WUSV - WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP TRIAL

September 16-18, 1988 in Muenster, Germany

When in 1968, 8 European German Shepherd Dog clubs founded the EUSV - European Union for German Shepherd Dog Clubs - with the goal to coordinate the breeding and training of German Shepherd Dogs, they did not foresee that this voluntary alliance would grow into today's WUSV - World Union for German Shepherd Dog Clubs - uniting 44 Countries with 51 member clubs.

Due to the worldwide interest in the EUSV, it was in 1974 that the EUSV delegates voted unanimously to expand the EUSV thereby becoming the WUSV.

Under the umbrella of the WUSV, those 8 European WUSV member clubs made it possible that for the first time in 1975 an EUSV-Championship Trial could be held in Salzburg, Austria.

This was also the year when the GSDCA, with our past President, Roabert E. Hamilton at the helm, applied for membership into the WUSV and was accepted to represent the United States of America in the World Union.

Two years later, in 1977, with the assistance and support of the GSDCA, the first United Schutzhund Club of America team was allowed to compete as a guest team, representing the WUSV member club the GSDA, at the third WUSV-European Trial in Amersfoort, Netherland.

Due to the high performance levels and incredible idealism of the competing teams at the EUSV trials it was possible that after 13 years, in 1988, the - FIRST WUSV-WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP TRIAL- would be held in Germany, hosted by the WUSV member club, the SV.

The following 23 Nations attended this first WUSV-World trial sending their teams with a total of 95 dogs, competing in the Schutzhund III competition, making this event like an - OLYMPIC FOR THE WORKING DOG SPORT - Austria, Belgium, Brazil, China, Costa Rica, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, France, Finland, Germany, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Lichtenstein, Luxembourg, Mexico, Netherland, Switzerland, Spain, United States of America, Yugoslavia,

From one of the smallest countries in the WUSV, the WUSV member club of Belgium, came the

First WUSV-World Schutzhund III Champion,
HASSAN VOM HAUS MOONS (score 98-94-100)

The placings of the 1988 team competition are as follows:

1. Germany	872 points
2. Belgium	860 "
3. United States (U.S.C.A.)	859 "
4. Austria	859 "

8. Denmark	841 "
9. United States (GSDA)	834 "

10. Yugoslavia	832 points

INVITATION OF SV BREED AND TRIAL JUDGES

Anne Due

April 1989 Report

In regard to the procedure of this matter I like to recommend that a letter from the GSDCA Corresponding Secretary, Blanche Beisswenger, is sent to all GSDCA member clubs, and the GSDCA-WDA reminding everyone to follow the long established agreements between the GSDCA and the SV for the release of SV judges.

1. If a club wants to invite an SV judge, a letter has to be sent, as early as possible to: A. Due, Foreign Liaison and WUSV Delegate Committee, requesting the invitation of SV breed and/or trial judge, Mr. X. (Note: Anne's address is Glockenlandstrasse 24, 5138 Heinsberg-Dremmen, West Germany.)

2. Then, I write a letter to the SV asking for the release of this judge. Without the official release from the SV no SV judge is permitted to accept an assignment.

3. When I receive the release from the SV for this assignment I notify the host club.

4. From here on the host club has to take care of all necessary correspondence between the judge, his travel arrangements and so on.

5. Important: If a SV Conformation judge is invited for the first time to the United States to judge an AKC sanctioned breed show, the host club must contact the AKC also. In a case like this, Blanche can enlighten the clubs and should include this in the letter.

6. Inviting a trial (schutzhund) judge no contact with the AKC is necessary. Although, this procedure is in effect for many years, the constant changes in clubs leaderships makes it necessary to enlighten our member clubs again so that in the future I can avoid any last minutes calls to the SV for the release of conformation or trial judges.

Agenda - WUSV meeting, Karlsruhe

May 24, 1989 is the dead-line for submitting items to be placed upon the agenda of the WUSV meeting, Karlsruhe, September 18, 1989 by WUSV member clubs.

Attention Club Secretaries: Please put in your permanent files for future secretaries the above regulations for inviting SV judges to officiate at your club specialty shows. You should contact the AKC far in advance of your regular show judges' approval. AKC will tell you if the judge is already in AKC files or if it will be necessary for the AKC to get credentials or other data from the foreign registries. This takes time. If you are contemplating engaging a foreign judge, start a full year in advance; first, for SV release, and thence to AKC--even before you submit show date and show judges' applications.

FURTHER TO CLUB SECRETARIES: If you have a newsletter, before giving this page to the editor, make a copy for your permanent records.

THE OFFICIAL NATIONAL SPECIALTY VIDEO TAPES FEATURE THE KEY EVENTS AT EACH YEARS NATIONAL SHOW. READ THIS FOR A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF HOW TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE MANY FEATURES AVAILABLE TO THE MEMBERSHIP

OUT-TAKES - In order to make the final program of each years National Show it is necessary to video tape more dogs than are needed to make the two hour finished program. The out-takes are those shots of dogs in competition which are not used in the official tape. Most of the out-takes occur at the end of each class when competition is at its best. We do not guarantee extended coverage of any dog, but you will get all the excitement and sounds of the event as it happened. We keep the original footage for one year, and then erase the tapes for use in the next year's show. Out-takes are available for the current year only.

GOLDEN OLDIES are the official video tapes of the Nationals that took place more than four years ago. They are the favorite of novices, and the new members who haven't yet learned to identify the pillars of the breed - the Stud Dogs, ROMs, and the Futurity and Maturity winners. They are offered at a much reduced rate to encourage historical interest in the breed, and to make them available to those who would find it a hardship to acquire the library at regular prices.

LIBRARY MEMBERS are subscribers who have purchased ten or more National (2 hour) video tapes. Library members can purchase the current years National tape at a $20.00 discount. This special group was formed in recognition of their continued support for the video project.

THE NATIONAL SPECIALTY VIDEO TAPE LIBRARY is the only one of its kind among all national dog clubs. It serves as an ongoing educational project of the German Shepherd Dog Club of America, Inc. as a source of reference for its members, and for those interested in the history and development of the German Shepherd dog.

Royal Hecht Awards

(Revised 11/18/88)

The Royal Hecht Awards were initiated several years ago in honor of a past member. The initial awards have been expanded upon to include a wide variety of titles and/or achievements.

Rules and Regulations

The following are the requirements which must be met to compete for and/or be awarded a Royal Hecht as set forth by the German Shepherd Dog Club of St. Louis, Inc.

I. GENERAL

These requirements could be met by an Associate Member as well as a Regular Member. Under unusual and/or extraordinary circumstances, a member may petition the appointed committee to waive any of the above requirements.
- B. Dog: Your dog must be an AKC registered German Shepherd Dog and must be six months of age or older.
- C. Titles from nationally and internationally recognized organizations (e.g., AKC, CKC, GSDCA, ATTS, SV, USA, DVG, etc.) will be considered. (See Sec. III below for specific titles)
- D. Titles will be recognized if the owner was a member of the GSDCSL at the time the title was earned.

THE JOYS OF SPRING

BY

HELENE BRIDGES*

Well, the grass is growing, we're planting flowers^{*original} and tomatoes and what ever. I know the dogs are happy that the trees are in bloom, it means shade for them. It also means baby birds, baby squirrels, baby everything.

The other day the boys were in the back yard and we were all out in front just puttering around and my daughter, Sonya, started yelling at Hercules and Ace, you boys are gross, disgusting, so we ran to see what was so gross. Well Hercules had this baby squirrel in his mouth and Ace wanted it, so they were playing keep away. I yelled drop it, and Herk did, then Ace would grab it, I yelled again, he dropped it, but it squealed, and Herk grabbed it again, so I called them to the fence as Don went over the fence to get it. Would you believe it was not dead but the rear leg was injured so we took care of it. I guess Herk thought it was a toy, it squeaked.

Not two days later I look out the kitchen window and Tish, Dinah, Ace and Herk kept going over to a roll of wire and they would sniff and jump back, sniff and jump back, so knowing we do have snakes in the yard, I made Don go out to see wht it was. Only a baby robin inside the roll of wire, he must have just left the nest, so Don Shooed it away and the dogs watched as it flew to the top of the kennels.

I remember years ago, Shep would catch birds and throw them up in the air and sometimes he would put them in the pool for me, or bring a dead squirrel or rabbit and leave them on the back porch for me to find.

Only once was I so mad at Sheba for bringing me a field mouse, she had it in her mouth, and when I held out my hand, she gave it to me, I was not real happy that day.

I guess they figure, if it's in their yard it's their toys.

One comment on leaving you, remember the bee's and the poison plants are out there, so watch what your dog comes in contact with.

NIGHTSHADE, (Bittersweet) is DEADLY, so are a few others. You can call Shaw's Garden for a list of plants that may do harm to you or your dogs..

HAVE A NICE SUMMER.....From the BRIDGENHAUS GANG.

MY MOTHER-IN-LAW IS A DOG Show Exhibitor

or

More Clues that I Married Into A Dog Show Family

by Tony Szczuka*

*Original Article

I guess that I should have know what kind of a life I would have after I got married by looking at my in-laws. But I just figured that my Mother-In-Law was just kind of strange (like most Mother-In-Laws). Now I find that there is a conspiracy between my wife and my Mother-In-Law to make me just as strange.

Here are a few of things that has happened to me:

1. When we were dating, my Mother-In-Law called me "Long Legs Szczuka" and commented on my potential 'athletic ability'. It was only later that I learned her idea of 'athletic ability' is the ability to run around a LARGE ring trying to control a 500 pound locomotive on four legs.
2. My Mother-In-Law asked me to run to the corner to pick up a few things for her. The corner turned out to be her wholesaler who lived 5 miles away and a few things included ten 50 pound bags of dry dog food and eleven cases of canned dog food! (She asked what took me so long).
3. It's always easy to tell whether my Mother-In-Law or Father-In-Law picked out a particular Christmas present. Last Christmas I got a tool box, screwdriver set and an ACME silent dog whistle. (Can you figure out who picked what?)
4. One time when we were at my in-laws, company was coming over and my Mother-In-Law asked me to help her 'pick up' in the yard. I said "Sure, be happy to help", and proceeded to pick up the garden hose, toys, the barbecue tongs, etc. I was no longer so happy to help when she informed me that pick up in the yard was a nice way of saying 'shovel the dog poop'.
5. As long as I have known my Mother-In-Law, the furniture in her house has never been moved; but let us go to a dog show with a few crates and I hear: "The shade is better over here"; "Move the crates closer to the ring"; "I think it would be better if Kyle's crate was next to Lyssa's"; "Can you find a spot closer to the car"; "Tony, why you do always look so tired?".
6. When my Mother-In-Law tells me "Go get dressed. We are going to visit some friends." I translate it as "Go get your grubby clothes on. We are going to visit some friends and I want you to gait the dogs, stack the dogs, help brush them and pick up (that term again!) in their runs."
7. At least it makes her easy to shop for: we just grab something for her at a show with a dog on it and tell her how we hunted for months for 'just the right thing'.

DO YOU NEED TO KNOW . . .

If a Judge likes Blacks or Sables ?

If your dog has a chance to take points from the Bred-By Class ? ?

MAYBE I CAN HELP !

I have compiled the results of hundreds of dog shows* from across the country. All of the results are compiled based upon the judge. For two dollars, you can get the results of all the dog shows a certain person has judged (since March 1987). For each judge requested, you will receive the name of the Show, the date, Major Awards and the class from which they came, if the show held a major, and a comment on any Blacks/Sables which took Major Awards. Major Awards include Winners Dog & Reserve, Winners Bitch & Reserve, Best of Breed, and Best Opposite.

* - Show results include specialty and All-Breed shows (GSD only) which had at least 15 dogs shown

The following is an example of a dog show result:

JUDGE: Doe, Mrs J

SHOW: Anytown USA Kennel Club

DATE: 8/8/88

WD : Good Dog v Hundhaus (9-12)

R : Rover of Clover Lawn (Open)

WB : Daisy's Duchess (Am Bred) (BW)

R : Windy of Danko (Bred-By)

BB : Ch Lady v Hundhaus

BO : WD

COMMENTS : Black for WD; Sable for BB; 5 pt major
