GERMAN SHEPHERD DOG CLUB OF ST. LOUIS, INC.
BOARD OF GOVERNOR'S MEETING MINUTES
JUNE 7, 1990
BOATWRIGHT'S BANK OF WEBSTER GROVES

CALL TO ORDER: By President Bud Leistner at 8:15 p.m.

PRESENT: Bud Leistner, Harold Beckham, Don Krueger, Charlie Wolford, Terrasita Cuffie, Marilyn Balsman, Don Bridges, Helene Bridges, Louise Leistner, Alan Rooney, Lori Schwartzbeck, and Daphne Szczuka.

VISITORS: Fred Balsman and Tony Szczuka.

The Board of Governor's Meeting Minutes of May 3, 1990 were approved with the following correction: The German Shepherd Dog club of America has to approve our application to host the Futurity.

TREASURER REPORT

Don Krueger presented the treasurer report for May 1, 1990 to May 31, 1990 and it was filed for audit.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Charlie Wolford received some newsletters and other items relating to the show which were given to Harold Beckham. Bud announced that AKC has approved the panel of judges: Nick Mondelli for breed and Patrick Higgins for obedience. Bud also received an AKC financial update if anyone is interested.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

TRAINING

Harold Beckham announced that puppy kindergarten is over and obedience classes are winding up.

SPRING SHOW

Harold reported that the financial results of the spring show is inconclusive until we receive an update of trophy coverage. There are 20-25 trophies left over. The contract price was $1,100 and we currently have $800 in pledges. Helene suggested that we bring it up to the membership as to whether we will continue to have trophies. They are not always the perfect answer; especially where, as with this last show they were this expensive and not covered. Harold mentioned that we will not have them for the fall show. Helene mentioned that the decision should be up to the show chairman but it was passed on a motion previously. The discussion next centered around the following considerations: There should be no dictation to the show chairman as to what he/she buys, it should be what they can afford. Keeping trophies from year to year ties us to that company because of re-engravings. However its beginning to cost just as much to change the engravings. The possibility of imposing ceilings as an inducement to shopping around was also mentioned. One of the problems with last supplier was that we were supposed to have trophies with a marble base; however, the trophies were plastic instead. We should not allow suppliers to change the terms of the contract and provide us with non-conforming goods. Other ideas included requiring that we have money before show to cover trophies so that the club won't be responsible and the trophy chairman should be directly responsible and fully accountable to the show chairman and that we remove the standardization of trophies. Daphne suggested donating the left over trophies to the obedience trainers. Helene suggested that the trophies be sold to the obedience committee and Daphne replied that the sale should be at cost only. Bud has a customer who has an engraving machine and will check on the possibility of the club using it. Marilyn suggested that we get bills to people who still owe money for trophies.

CARDS/FLOWERS

Louise Leistner mentioned that we will now be using Forst Park Florist.

WAG 'N TONGUE/COPIER

Two stud dog ads are paid for and two breeder's page ads are paid for and we have room for one more. Daphne Szczuka also presented the copier report.

OLD BUSINESS

A motion to approve Harold Beckham as the fall show chairman passes.

The price for the club picnic will be $4.00. The picnic will be on August 5, 1990 at Mry's Shelter at Love County Park. Those who sign up will have to pay even if they do not show up, and members must make a reservation with Louise Leistner by July 31, 1990.

Motion to refund applicant Joan Lessor's application fee after she withdrew her application stating that she was not interested and no longer owned a German Shepherd Dog was approved.

Apache Mills, Inc. sells a 1/8 inch mat. The standard size is 4x30 at the price of $79.68 each. 60 feet sells for $159.43. For 4 the price would be $837.42 making the total price $1,004.26 with shipping costs. Bud will check to see if the company will send a sample.

The Canine Corp. reception is July 31, 1990.

Bud mentioned that the Police Canine Association, a national group is considering having a basic obedience match for canine corp. trainers and their dogs. Nancy Kearney suggested that the FSDC donate a high score award. Helene mentioned that it would be good club publicity. Bud suggested not including the city officers since we have functions that honor them. Helene disagreed. We will present the idea to the general membership. Helene moved that Nancy Kearney present the idea to the membership since there was some confusion as to whether the club would sponsor one award or several. Louise Leistner second. Motion passed.

NEW BUSINESS

Board members discussed proposed by-law changes presented by the by-law committee. Charlie moved that we not have absentee voting and Don Bridges second. Motion passed. Terrasita suggested that the committee print a copy of the constitution as it would read with the changes and that we consider it at the next board meeting and then present it to the membership. Helene agreed.

Motion to adjourn: Don Bridges.

Second: Harold Beckham

Motion passed.

Meeting Adjourned: 10:45 p.m.

WHO'S TO BLAME?

By Dianne Brokaw, Animal Control Officer, Ferguson, MO

Catch them! Kill them! Seems like all that we do,
Isn't it about time we added something new?
Spay/Neuter clinics, it is agreed we need more.
But what about the millions who walk through the door?
"I have to get rid of this dog, he/s become quite a chore!"
Not all of these people have heads that are "thick";
They just don't understand what makes their dog tick!

Be RESPONSIBLE! is what we shout,
And then we don't teach them what that is really about,
Shelter, food, water and don't let them roam
But have we taught them to live in the home?
Sounds like housing a hog
Not a family's pet dog.

For what do we hear
Year after year?
I let the dog out the back door
Dumb dog! He came in and wet on the floor.
So, I got really mad
I'll teach that dog to be bad!
I threw him out with a mighty shout.
"That should teach him what it's all about!"
I'm not sure I want a dog
Can you believe he ate my cement frog?
I know he did it out of spite
Well I showed him, he stayed out all night,
Next morning, little Timmy didn't make it out the door
Instead he wound up on the floor
Where Fido had sent him crashing.
I think that dog needs a thrashing!
I tried one more thing before I gave up hope.
I tied that dog with a very stout rope.
And that really proved it, this dog is crazy
He spent an hour barking at a daisy!
So you can see I'm really not lazy
It's just this dog's thinking that's hazy!
Please, I don't wish him harm
Perhaps you could find him a home on a farm?

What does it take to sound the alarm?
For animal shelters to lend an arm?
Our shelter's too busy matching dogs that are lost
Besides how would we cover the cost?
Our adoptions have increased we boast
And on our laurels I think we can coast.
Educating children grades K thru Three
Isn't that enough effort by me?
Animal Control can raise fines and fees
That will bring "bad" pet owners to their knees!
To do NOTHING is the really great cost

WHO'S TO BLAME (Continued)

For think of all the lives that are lost!
Now because the problems aren't new
Don't just sit there feeling blue.
The time is now to start the trend
For "death sentence" behavior to END.
Start out small, then you can grow
Based on all the things you know.

Ms. Brokaw has given permission for this poem to be reprinted. It is a message that everyone involved in the various sports and activities
associated with the dog fancy: breeders, trainers,
etc. can take to heart.

Royal Hecht Awards

(Revised 11/18/88)

The Royal Hecht Awards were initiated several years ago in honor of a past member. The initial awards have been expanded upon to include a wide variety of titles and/or achievements.

Rules and Regulations

The following are the requirements which must be met to compete for and/or be awarded a Royal Hecht as set forth by the German Shepherd Dog Club of St. Louis, Inc.

I. GENERAL

- A. Owner: In order to be awarded a Royal Hecht Plaque, a member must meet the qualifications which would enable them to vote in the election of officers in January (i.e., attendance requirements, work hour requirements, and financial requirements as designated in Article V, Sec. 4 (a) of the GSDCSL Constitution and By-Laws (1/17/86)). These requirements could be met by an Associate Member as well as a Regular Member. Under unusual and/or extraordinary circumstances, a member may petition the appointed committee to waive any of the above requirements.
- B. Dog: Your dog must be an AKC registered German Shepherd Dog and must be six months of age or older.
- C. Titles from nationally and internationally recognized organizations (e.g., AKC, CKC, GSDCA, ATTS, SV, USA, DVG, etc.) will be considered. (See Sec. III below for specific titles)
- D. Titles will be recognized if the owner was a member of the GSDCSL at the time the title was earned.

II. SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

- A. ROYAL HECHT BRED BY EXHIBITOR AWARD:* You must be the breeder and owner or co-owner. You or a member of your immediate family or co-owner must handle the dog only. (Immediate family includes father, mother, sister, brother, wife, husband, son, or daughter.) Points toward the Royal Hecht Bred By Award will be awarded in proportion to the dog must be shown in the Bred-By-Exhibitor class to be awarded points.*

competition entered in each individual class. There is no restriction as to the number of dogs. NOTE: All entries count, not just those who show.

- B. ROYAL HECHT BEST PUPPY AWARD: You must be the owner or co-owner of the dog. Points toward the Royal Hecht Best Puppy Award will be awarded in proportion to the competition entered in each individual class (i.e., The Puppy Classes Only). There is no restriction as to the number of dogs. NOTE: All entries count, not just those who show.

C. ROYAL HECHT OBEDIENCE AWARDS:

ROYAL HECHT NOVICE OBEDIENCE AWARD: This award will be awarded to the dog with the highest combination of scores from the three official legs for the Companion Dog title.

ROYAL HECHT ADVANCED OBEDIENCE AWARD: This award will be awarded to the dog with the highest combination of three scores in the Open and/or Utility classes in a calendar year. If the scores from only the three official legs of a newly earned advanced title (i.e., CDX or UD) are used for this award, five (5) points will be added to their total and the calendar year restriction is waived.

- D. ROYAL HECHT DUAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD: The Royal Hecht Dual Achievement Award will be awarded to the dog with the highest score. The score will be based on the number of dogs defeated while placing in any regular class (as in the Bred By Award) plus the total of three qualifying scores in any regular obedience class in a calendar year.

- E. ROYAL HECHT JUNIOR HANDLER AWARD: Junior Handlers are eligible whose parent(s) meet the membership requirements as delineated above (Sec. I, A). Points toward this award will be awarded in proportion to the competition entered in each individual class (Junior Handler Classes Only).

- F. ROYAL HECHT SERVICE DOG BREEDER AWARD: An award will be given to a member who is the breeder of a dog who enters service during the calendar year (e.g., K-9, Guide Dog, military, Support Dog, etc.). The dog must be considered in full time service to be eligible for this award.

III. RECOGNIZED TITLES AND PLAQUES

The following are guidelines for the standardization of plaque size for specific titles/awards: Four sized of plaques have been awarded (small, medium, large and extra large).

Small Plaques will be awarded for the following:

TT/TC	BH/WH/AD	Service Dog Breeder Award
CD	GCC
TD	HIC (when approved)

Medium Plaques will be awarded for the following:

CDX	Bred By Exhibitor Award
SchH I	Best Puppy Award
FH	Novice Obedience Award
Herding Titles	Advance Obedience Award
(when approved)	Dual Achievement Award
	Junior Handler Award
	Futurity-Maturity Victor/Victrix

Large Plaques will be awarded for the following:

CH	Select CH	Top Winning Dog, Review System
UD	SchH II & III	International CH
TDX	Hero Dog	Placement in international SchH competitions

Extra Large Plaques will be awarded for the following:

ROM	Grand Victor/Victrix
OTCH	Obedience Victor/Victrix
	Schutzhund Victor/Victrix

The club reserves the right to make special awards to unusual cases and achievements not usually considered.

IV. RESPONSIBILITY: It is the responsibility of the dog's owner to contact the person responsible for the Royal Hecht Awards and provide the correct name, title(s) earned, the date the title was officially awarded, scores if applicable, or any other necessary information. The chairperson is not required to make calls and inquiries about degrees, titles, achievements, etc.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

NOTE: The existing Royal Hecht Rules and Regulations were modified at the regular monthly meeting on November 18, 1988, after the revisions had been presented during the October 21, 1988 regular monthly membership meeting and were published in the Wag 'N' Tongue (Nov. 1988 issue).

K-9 CRIME BUSTERS

A Way To Afford Public Relations & Publicity by Nancy Yadon Kearney

Don and Helene Bridges solved a big problem for the German Shepherd Dog Club of St. Louis.

The club has given an Outstanding Service Award to the St. Louis Canine Corps for the last nineteen years. The award brings our club and the Canine Corps excellent local publicity, both television and newspapers, which is very good for the Breed itself. We have always sent out lots of press releases to the newspapers and public service announcements to the radio stations. At the same time we adopted the K-9 Corps as a civic project in order to give something back to the community. We try to find dogs for them, keep the cemetery pretty (with lots of help from the officers), or get equipment they might need. All of these activities provided good public relations. Unfortunately, they also began to cost a great deal.

Postage and thank you notes could run $30 or more. Each officer received a photograph and, of course, pictures were needed for articles in the Review and Dog World. These had gone up in price alarmingly. The German Shepherd Dog medallions on a ribbon, to hang around the dog's neck, stayed about the same price—the cost ran between $5-$6. The lovely walnut plaque for the winner, the larger retirees' plaque, and list of winners' plaque for the office became very expensive. The Winner's certificate and Honorable Mention certificates which were individually typeset on parchment paper cost more every year. We also provided lunch for the officers and their families. The award was beginning to cost between $200 and $300 to do it properly.

The club wanted to continue to present the award and to do it with style, but income was going down and expenses were going up, just as they are for everyone.

"K-9 Crime Busters, Support Your Local K-9 Corps," is the slogan dreamed up by Helene and Don. They had hats and T-shirts made with the slogan and some paw prints. They are fantastic. To promote the items, they came up with a poster featuring Olrac's Little Murdock, owned by Walter and Louise Leistner, behind bars dressed in a prison outfit and wearing handcuffs. Ch. Bridgehaus' Hercules v Teela TT, TDI, owned by Helene Bridges, was put in a police shirt and hat. The local police precinct allowed them to take the pictures in a cell. That poster really gets attention, and that in turn sells the hats and T-shirts. K-9 officers from other municipalities even buy them, because they fit any unit. The general public has bought quite a few. Don and Helene set up the booth at various functions around the area featuring dogs, as well as at club matches and shows.

The Bridges also approached local businesses and asked for support for the project. A former club member, Dee Martin of Dee's Printing in Fenton, MO, was kind enough to donate the certificates for the awards. Some businesses donated items that could be sold or raffled and some gave donations. A donation jar is always present at the K-9 Crime Busters exhibit. The public is generous.

Countless hours were spent trying to find a way to get the same quality at less expense. They searched discount stores for frames and checked prices for printing the poster. (People wanted to buy copies of that too.)

Don's mother makes quilts as a hobby. She was kind enough to donate a large quilt with a matching smaller quilt to be raffled. That got the fund off to a good start. The club put up $100 to buy the first order of hats and T-shirts. It was returned quickly.

Another idea is to dress a stuffed German Shepherd Dog in a hat and coat with K-9 Corps on it, then raffle the dog. The dog is purchased, but the outfit isn't made yet—but it will be.

Thanks to a tremendous amount of effort on the part of Don and Helene Bridges and their K-9 Crime Busters project, they succeeded in making the Canine Corps Award something our club could continue to present. The two of them keep coming up with ideas to raise money, so it is hoped the club will be able to start another award project for the Canine Corps of the surrounding municipalities sometime in the future.

We are sharing this story in hopes that it will stimulate other German Shepherd Dog Clubs around the country to come up with good publicity ideas, as well as the way to pay for them. We'd also like to hear other people's ideas.
